MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

Director, Office of External Affairs

SUBJECT: Invitation to Address the 50th Military Operations Research Society Symposium

1. Action Requested: Accept or decline invitation to address the 50th Anniversary Symposium of the Military Operations Research Society (MORS) of the Naval Academy, Wednesday, 9 March, 1045 to 1200.

2. Background: Vice-President, Special Systems Group, Analytics Corporation, has invited you to speak to the MORS 50th Anniversary Symposium. You have been asked to speak on the projected Soviet Warsaw Pact capabilities. This session will be conducted at the Secret Genser level. An audience of 600 is expected. If you decide to speak, the 75 minutes may be structured any way that you prefer as to length of time for remarks and questions and answers. GEN Meyer, Chief of Staff of the Army, ADM Inman, VADM Trost, and RADM Butts have agreed to address the Symposium.

MORS is supported by the three service secretaries and OJCS. It meets semi-annually as the professional society of operations research and systems analysts dealing with national security issues. The membership consists of military officers and representatives from other intelligence agencies. At any given meeting there will usually be several flag officers and attendees of "honorable" rank. Please see attached brochure for further information.

3. Recommendation: None; indicate your intention and authorize Public Affairs to send appropriate letter of acceptance or regret.
